

Parochial School Begins Golden Rule Days Early

Those "good old golden rule days" of school began a week early for Torrance students attending Long Beach Seventh-day Adventist Elementary school, 4951 Oregon Ave., R. C. Lyman, principal of the school, said.

Lyman said classes at the parochial school opened Tuesday, Sept. 4, about a week before the majority of Torrance youngsters trek back to public schools.

Anticipating an enrollment increase of about 10 per cent in this year's attendance Lyman said, "It is traditional for Adventist schools to open the day after Labor Day. Special scheduling through the year makes this advantageous to our program."

Registration of students was held Aug. 30, Lyman said. The local Seventh-day Adventist parochial school is one of 36 operated by the denomination in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties. Lyman said 4600 students will be in attendance during the 1962-63 school year.

Golf Course Opening Set

Work on the new Jack Thompson Golf Course at Sportsman's Park was accepted last week by the Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn pointed out that the contractor, R & M Landscaping, completed the new 9-hole pitch and putt course in accordance with all plans and specifications well within the contract time limitation.

The course will be dedicated in a ceremony attended by civic and sports dignitaries Sept. 21 at 9:30 a.m. "This is one of the finest 9-hole golf courses in the nation and it will provide a real challenge and delight to every golfer," Hahn said.

Special lighting at the course makes night play possible. Tentative hours of operation are from 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. daily.

USC Honors Local Grad At Entrance

Peter Allen Juul of 2501 W. 180th St., Torrance, graduate of North High School, has been admitted to the University of Southern California with Honors-at-Entrance.

Dr. Norman Topping, USC president, notified the prospective student of the award based upon a high school grade average of 3.75 or better — almost all "A's."

Few students enter USC with such an outstanding scholastic record, President Topping said. In fact, most recently, the honors-at-entrance award was made to only 147 students in a class of 1600.

"You and your family should be very proud of your success, and, on behalf of the entire University, I wish to congratulate you for your achievement," Dr. Topping's letter to the student said.

PTA Board To Slate Luncheon

The Flavian PTA held an annual teachers luncheon yesterday in the home economics room at 11:30 a.m.

The welcome tea for the kindergarten mothers will be held Sept. 13. The time will be posted later. There will be a paper and rag drive later this month. Persons wishing to have papers or rags picked up may contact Mrs. Harold Mailander at PR 1-1604.

The next Flavian PTA board meeting was held Sept. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the home economics room. Persons wishing to attend will be more than welcome, the president said.

Editor: The parents of the teenagers today have quite a problem. It is time for mothers, fathers, aunts, uncles, grandmothers and grandfathers to get together and check and double check the teen-ager at home. Help them in their school work give them responsibility of keeping up their home like yard work, painting, carpenter work, cooking, washing and ironing. All these things will be of great help in them in their grown up life.

The parents should give them some money for their work so they will have money of their own. Help them to join Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, YMCA and YWCA, summer camps, all these will keep them from being lonely and restless.

It has been brought to our attention that most of these teen-agers are lonely and feel like they are not wanted. So they join a group so as to be with company and sometimes it turns out to be the wrong company. This is a very serious thought. It is time for all the adults to put their shoulders to the wheel and see it is steered straight.

How nice and wonderful it would be if each working plant could arrange summer camps for teen-agers of the parents working for them. Even though there would be a small fee given to the company weekly or monthly for the expense for such a camp, which could consist of educational programs, such as swimming, hiking, fishing, hunting, resting, good food, health and hygiene. Please give this deep consideration — because it involves each and every one of us.

It would be a joy to watch this young generation grow up to be something mighty fine. In this richly plentiful and beautiful country, the Good Old U.S.A.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mildred Hall

regular school insurance and an additional $12 for a football rider which covered my son while he was engaged in regularly scheduled tackle football games. He could not have played without this insurance.

During the course of a regular game in the latter part of the season he blocked a punt with his face and received a broken nose which later on required hospitalization and surgery. The insurance paid a little more than half the cost of the hospital room and half the surgeon's and anesthesiologist's fees.

The cost to me was less than $200 dollars. I am thankful that the injury was no more serious than it was or I would have been in financial trouble.

I have been informed by experienced insurance men that the premium I paid for this short term insurance should have provided better coverage.

I discussed this with the Torrance School Board and at the time the board seemed to be concerned, but I have been informed since that no further action is contemplated.

I am trying to find out what a full coverage group insurance short term policy will cost and see if we, the parents, can't get better protection.

Sincerely,
William Brace

Editor: The coming bond election to be held Sept. 18 in Torrance will determine whether we have regular or double school sessions in the future. The school board is running out of building money, but the numbers of pupils are still increasing 1,500 per year, which adds up to 6,000 in four years. Over half these will be high school students.

This is the problem the $8 million, four-year program seeks to solve.

The school board must have the money on hand at least eighteen months ahead of need in order to proceed with the school building program in time to have the schools ready for the children when they arrive.

That's the whole story in a nutshell.

Yours very truly,
J. H. Hull
Secretary of the Board of Education Torrance Unified School District.

Editor: The 1960 census placed the population of Torrance at 100,603. Recent studies show the population of Torrance is now 111,707, a growth of more than 5500 people each year! This population growth will cause an increase in school enrollment. A conservative estimate indicates at least 6000 children will enter the school system in the next four years.

The population explosion in Torrance 1950 to 1960 required the school district to build 37 schools to keep pace with the growth of the school population and get the children off the "double sessions" that existed during part of this decade. At the present time, our building program is current in relation to enrollments and we want to keep it that way. In order to do so we need to plan at least one and one half years in advance because it takes that long to complete a school from the "drawing plans state" to a "ready for occupancy" status.

Building funds are borrowed from investors who take bonds of the district as security for their loan. An authorization to sell bonds must be approved by the voters. Bonds, once authorized, will be sold only when they are needed to provide building funds. This authorization will give the Board of Education the necessary flexibility to proceed with building plans as the school population dictates. All funds authorized by the voters must have board approval before they can be spent and can only be used for school construction.

—Torrance Board of Education.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Do You Operate Under a Fictitious Firm Name?

1. Ques. What is a Fictitious Firm Name?

Ans. Any name which does not completely and clearly identify the owner or owners.

2. Ques. Why should an individual or partnership doing business under a Fictitious Name file and publish a Certificate?

Ans. 1. The law is specific and mandatory. Business people, like other persons, should obey the law. 2. No Court action of any sort can be maintained until Certificate is filed and published. Such filing and publishing contributes to the value and protection of a trade name.

3. Ques. Is the name "J. B. Smith Company" a fictitious name?

Ans. Yes. Because the term "company" is ambiguous and suggestive of uncertainty.

4. Ques. How can customer find out if he has filed and published his certificate of business?

Ans. Simply by checking with the Corporation department of your county clerk's office, or by telephoning Los Angeles Newspaper Service Bureau, Inc., MA 5-2541.

5. Ques. What does Section 2468 of the Civil Code mean by the wording that no person or partnership failing to comply shall maintain any action upon, or an account of, any contract or contracts made or transaction had, under such fictitious name in any Court of this State?

Ans. Simply that the person or partnership cannot sue.

6. Ques. Does that mean that cash stores are not affected?

Ans. There are many grounds for court action besides the mere collection of past due accounts. For instance, a cash grocery may wish to sue a trucking company for damage to shipments.

7. Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published?

Ans. Yes. "Every person transacting business in this state under a fictitious name" must file and publish.

8. Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published?

Ans. Yes. Section 2469 of the Civil Code states that "On every change in the members of a partnership transacting business in this State under a fictitious name... a new certificate must be filed with the County Clerk and a new publication made."

9. Ques. Must a corporation file and publish a certificate?

Ans. Yes, when the corporation as a person owns and operates some other business under a fictitious firm name. In such event it must file and publish, otherwise not.

10. Ques. Do public authorities demand compliance with the fictitious firm law?

Ans. Yes. For instance, the California State Department of Vocational Standards will not issue a license to any contractor or contracting partnership who has not filed and published.

11. Ques. May a person or person engaged in more than one business under fictitious name meet the publication requirements by filing and printing only one certificate?

Ans. The Los Angeles County Counsel has ruled: "We incline to opinion that the provisions of said section contemplate a certificate be filed and published for EACH fictitious name under which a business is transacted."

12. Ques. Does the filing and publication of a Trade Name Certificate have value in establishing owner's title in a firm name?

Ans. Yes, the courts have held such registration and publication to be a prima facie evidence of name ownership where two claimants to a name have contested ownership.

13. Ques. How may a Certificate be prepared, filed and published?

Ans. See your lawyer, bank, Torrance Press or the County Clerk.

14. Ques. What will it cost?

Ans. The statutory two dollar County Clerk fee for filing, plus the publisher's rate of $15 for four weekly insertions of the advertisement, amounting to a total of $17.

15. Ques. Where may filing service be obtained?

Ans. Complete service, forms and printed instructions is given FREE by the Torrance Press.
